Students are off to a great start in their reading novel groups. They've been having great discussions and working well together. We will continue our study of prefixes, suffixes, and root words throughout our novel group time. This word work is taking the place of spelling.

The next book report project is due after Thanksgiving Break on Tuesday, November 28. All books are nonfiction with students choosing between essay, test time, and chapter reviews for the project. I look forward to seeing their projects!

I hope everyone has a wonderful Thanksgiving!

Grade 8 – Ms. Stemler/Mr. Waldonjim.waldon@mystmarys.com

We are excited about the upcoming Thanksgiving break. We'll work hard at reading our 7th and 8th grade books during our short week before the holiday. 8th graders have begun their Christmas ornament project which is a long-running tradition at St. Mary's, and we're also gearing up for reading and singing at Lessons and Carols. As we look ahead to Lessons and Carols, please mark your calendars. The date is December 6 at 7:00 p.m., and participation is required for all students in grades 4 through 8. The choirs have been working on music for this annual service, and the rest of the student chorus will begin to practice in a couple of weeks.

It is time to unpack the Dickens Village for Main Street and Miracle on Main. We could use help at the Lions' Building this Saturday beginning at 10:00 a.m. and for as long as folks can stay. If anyone in grades 7 or 8 needs service hours or just wants to help with a community project, this is a big one.

8th graders are asked to bring in jelly for our contribution to S.T.O.'s St. Vincent de Paul Thanksgiving drive. We will get the items to the pantry the week after Thanksgiving. (Donations for the pantry are welcome any time!)

God bless.
