"Let us rededicate ourselves this year to recognizing the reign of Jesus Christ and his Sacred Heart in every aspect of our lives."

-- USCCB Office of Religious Liberty

Christ is King

This is the last Sunday of the liturgical year. Today, we celebrate the Solemnity of Our Lord Jesus Christ, King of the Universe, more commonly known as the Feast of Christ the King. This feast reminds us that Christ is the true king of our hearts and minds.

Thank You --

Aimee and I would like to extend a huge thank you to all from St. Mary's School and Parish that inquired about our 20-year old son Nate's car accident. Based on the severity of the accident, we are fortunate that Nate was not seriously injured. Nate escaped with no broken bones, no surgery required, and only minor abrasions and bruising. We know that Nate's Guardian Angel and our Lord spared his life that evening. We also know that all of your prayers made a difference and were key in Nate's positive outcome and quick recovery. Thanks again for all of your thoughts and prayers during what was a very difficult and stressful time for our family.

The exchange between Jesus and Pilate in today's Gospel is, arguably, the most important exchange in all of literature. Pilate asks Jesus: "What have you done?" Jesus replies that he testifies to the truth. In the second reading we are reminded of the essence of that truth: Christ, ruler of all, loves us, liberates us from the bonds of sin, makes us into a new kingdom. As we approach the Advent season, this week would be a good time to reflect on the question: What have we done in our daily lives, in our actions, words, private prayer, and in our interaction with others, to testify that Jesus is Lord?
